Visualize, Actualize, Realize

Visualize: It is so important to be able to form a vision of what you want to achieve. How can you walk in or towards a thing that you cannot see? Faith allows us to take a step when we cannot see the entire path but PURPOSE and VISION allow us the peace to take those steps of FAITH.

Actualize: Act on what you see. Live within what you see. Occupy the space th... at will carry you closer to your outcome. When you take a step that seemingly takes you off course be willing to declare success over those perceived missteps and keep walking forward. Keep talking forward. Keep loving forward.

Realize: Know better than anything you know that you cannot fail. It has been said that we must learn what it means to fail forward. What if we learn that there is no failure. There is no such thing as delay. For everything there is an appointed time and as we approach the appointed time for the realization of our own outcomes we might arrive faster by accepting as truth that the time leading to our moments of victory is nothing more and nothing less than a time of ripening. It is a time of BEcoming that which you have Visualized. There is no such thing as delay. There is only arrival.

Shine

Change The Bubble PR is committed to making a difference on a global level through everything that we do as a company. It occurs to me today that the work I am called to do through this company is God-ordained to reach people. NOT JUST because as a PR consultant I can use projects and initiatives to influence tastes and buying decisions and because I can help others become successful. BUT because I have a platform through which to be a light and shine the light of Christ so that all whom I encounter may bask in that light. I pray that more and more opportunities to do just that would manifest in my life and business.

For the longest time I thought it was either/or. Either you are a believer or you are in the world. But this journey is one that I have been on for a very long time and goodness knows there have been missteps. Thusly, I deeply know that it is all or nothing. And so I give my all so that all will be given.

May everyone who reads this grow, prosper and be ENCOURAGED to unabashedly share your faith no matter your industry. We are positioned wherever we are in order to accomplish a unique purpose. Do you know that people are hungry, thirsty for truth and for freedom? Do you know that they also need people to whom they can relate to be willing to share truth and freedom?

Today I was twice reminded that the way of the peaceful warrior is oft a peculiar path yet it does not mean that we have to be odd or strange or so heavenly no one can reach us. We are to be real and to rise and fall and rise again and be oh so willing to share those experiences and the growth and awarenesses that come from them. Through that God's glory is revealed.

I am a Change Agent. What do you do?
