Nate Jones On Bass Is Hitting The Road As Part Of Jay-Z's 2010 North American Tour

HOUSTON -- February 2, 2010; New York, NY--Nate Jones (On Bass) has been selected to tour as bass player for Trey Songz on Jay-Z's upcoming 2010 North American Tour. A passionate musician, Nate is best known for tireless dedication to his craft and his provocative style. He is also becoming the "bass player of choice" for many of the most recognized names in the music industry having shared the stage with Mike Phillips, Stevie Wonder, Wyclef, The Roots, Earth, Wind & Fire, Trey Songz, Drake, Lyfe Jennings, Estelle, John Legend, Gym Class Heroes and Doug E. Fresh to name a few. He is also a regular feature on Centric/ BET J's Lyric Cafe. The show is the network's only spoken word format featuring some of today's hottest poets hosted by Eric Benet, Ledisi and Raheem DeVaughn backed by an all-star band led by Mike Phillips with, of course, Nate Jones On Bass.

Nate Jones On Bass, coined NJOB, continues to drive the beat with his commitment to developing as an artist, producer, and entertainment executive. Notably, NJOB has starred in his first feature film, Cadillac Records, alongside Uber Diva Beyonce Knowles, Mos Def, Gabriel Union, Cedric the Entertainer and other Hollywood stars. His music has touched nearly every continent with stops in Italy, The Netherlands, Austria, Ireland, Germany and France.

The Jay-Z and Trey Songz tour kicks off February 22, 2010 in Houston and will hit 14 major markets across the nation. Tour dates and markets are as follows:

2/22 Houston @ Toyota Center
